- Willamette Valley Oregon: Best known for its Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley is home to more than 300 vineyards. Visitors can enjoy the valley's award-winning wine while taking in a breathtaking view of the Cascade mountains. And nature-lovers can walk or cycle along the McKenzie River Trail.

Seattle, Washington:

- Space Needle: This vertical icon is the city's most famous landmark. Built for the 1962 World's Fair, it stands at 605 feet tall and resembles a spaceship on stilts. It also towers over Seattle Center, a cultural complex where tourists spend hours at the Pacific Science Center or the Chihuly glass display.
- Pike Place Market: Since 1907, Pike Place Market has served as a year-round farmers market and features traditional food items as well as handicrafts and knickknacks. Vendors at Pike Place Fish Market also draw large crowds by tossing fish to each other near the market's main entrance.
